

BYRON NELSON ANNOUNCEMENTS

Thursday, September 6, 2018

September is Suicide Prevention Awareness month. Suicide is the number one MOST PREVENTABLE death. Did you know that more teenagers and young adults die from suicide than from cancer, heart disease, AIDS, birth defects, stroke, pneumonia, influenza, and chronic lung disease, COMBINED?! Be sure to do your part and ACT: Acknowledge, Care, and Tell. Next Monday, 9/10, is National Suicide Prevention Day and all students and staff are encouraged to wear yellow to show support for those who have been affected by suicide.

PEP RALLY GUIDELINES FOR TODAY

- When the bell rings for Pack Time @ 10:20 AM, student have two options: 1) report directly to the gym for the pep rally; or 2) report to their Pack Time teacher's classroom.
 - Teachers will monitor in the pep rally, and many teachers will remain in classrooms to monitor students who choose not to go to the pep rally. (Teachers if you haven't already, please speak with your neighboring teachers and decide who will stay in a classroom and who will go to the rally. As students are arriving to your classroom, please direct them to the neighboring classroom that will host students during the pep rally. Then if you are a teacher attending the rally, please report to the competition gym.)
 - Students may not be in the hallways or any other part of the building (no visits to the library, vending machines, or Java City) during today's pep rally- it's either the gym or a supervised classroom.
 - We will make an announcement at the end of the pep rally to let teachers in classrooms know that it's time to dismiss students to 3rd period. Please do not dismiss students before the announcement is made.
