FILL A SHOEBOX WITH NEW SMALL GIFTS FOR A CHILD

BNHS Family and Community Services, in cooperation with Operation Christmas Child, is sponsoring a donations competition between BNHS organizations (including fine arts, clubs, & school groups). Now through next Friday, 12/7 please bring to SU103 a shoebox (men, women, or child's shoebox) filled with a minimum of five small gifts for children 3 – 14 years of age. Many items are acceptable gifts, but these specific items are not allowed: clothes, any liquids, candy, food, medication, and inappropriate toys (i.e. guns, swords). Please put a sticky note/tape a notecard on your shoebox that identifies which school group you want to get credit for your shoebox of donations. Operation Christmas Child is an organization that gives shoe box gifts to children who cannot afford to celebrate Christmas. This is one way we can help this holiday season!
